Voluntary Merging of Small Congregations for Greater Spiritual Growth  (pages 79-80)

- EPISCOPAL LEADERSHIP should identify congregations that are close in proximity to each other with membership ranging from 1-50. Then a meeting should be called with the designated presiding elder(s), the pastors, the stewards and trustees of both congregations.
Following steps to merging a congregation:

STEP 1: IF all are in agreement, each pastor should call a church conference to present the idea to the members. (Timeline 3 months)

STEP 2: Committees should be established to include members from both congregations to do research on property issues, inclusive of identifying a contractor to determine which structure has the best potential for growth and expansion, which property has greater historic value, including special consideration for cemetery properties—(Timeline 6 months) Congregations must determine how cemeteries will be managed and maintained.
• STEP 3: Both churches should meet for services together exchanging facilities at least twice per month for the duration of the next conference year. (Timeline 12 months). The goal is for them to see the benefits and how well they can worship together. The Episcopal leadership, along with the Presiding Elder would need to ensure that the pastors involved would also have a future assignment within the upcoming conference year.
STEP 4: Boards of each church would be able to merge also, inclusive of trustees, stewards, and stewardesses, etc., based on numbers stipulated in The Doctrine and Discipline of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Of course, as the church grows, the new pastor should follow The Discipline in making any changes after one year as combined congregation. (Timeline 12 months)
• The combined congregation after one year of exchanging services will decide, based on committee reports, which structure will become their actual location; or would the sale of both properties serve them better in searching for a new neutral location.
Voluntary Merging  “NEW SECTION”

• Because of generational issues, the churches’ names could be combined to maintain continuity.

• For example, a St. Phillip and a St. Paul could become The Church of Phillip and Paul AME or the African Methodist Episcopal Church of Phillip and Paul of course congregations will have the ability to select a new name, if desired, thus creating a neutral name and a new start for both congregations.
Voluntary Merging “NEW SECTION”

• Before the final merger closes, classes to train the officers how to operate as a station church shall be conducted.
• The Annual Conference will redistribute the fiscal encumbrances of said churches.
