THE MARIAN BACON WHITE TEXTBOOK/SUPPLIES AWARD
EDWARD WATERS COLLEGE
Jacksonville, Florida 32209

The Eleventh Episcopal District Textbook Award was established, June 10, 2003, by the Eleventh Episcopal District Lay Organization of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The name was changed to the Marian Bacon White Textbook/Supplies Award in 2008. The purpose of this award is to assist qualifying students, enrolled at Edward Waters College, Jacksonville, Florida, in obtaining (Course) textbooks. The funds for the award will be administered by the Eleventh Episcopal District Lay Organization.

ELIGIBILITY REAUIREMENTS:

- Be currently enrolled, or enrolling for the present semester as a full-time, regular student at Edward Waters College.
- Be an active member of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.
- Submit completed application by established date.
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance.

THE SELECTION PROCRSS:

Recipient(s) will be selected by members of the Scholarship Committee of the Eleventh Episcopal District Lay Organization. The award will be granted based upon the student's need, academic progress, and current enrollment at Edward Waters College.

THE AWARD:

The amount of the award will be determined by award amount available and the applicant's verification of the amount needed to purchase requested textbook(s).

This amount will be further verified by a college official in the Office of Student Accounts.

NOTIFICATION OF SELECTION:

Applicant will be notified of the award following processing of application, verification of full- time enrollment at Edward Waters College and verification of amount requested for textbook/s.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENT:

- Completed application must be typed and submitted to the Episcopal District designee(s) by date of course enrollment.
